

WHAT’S THE RIGHT TOOL FOR BUILDING LANDING PAGES?

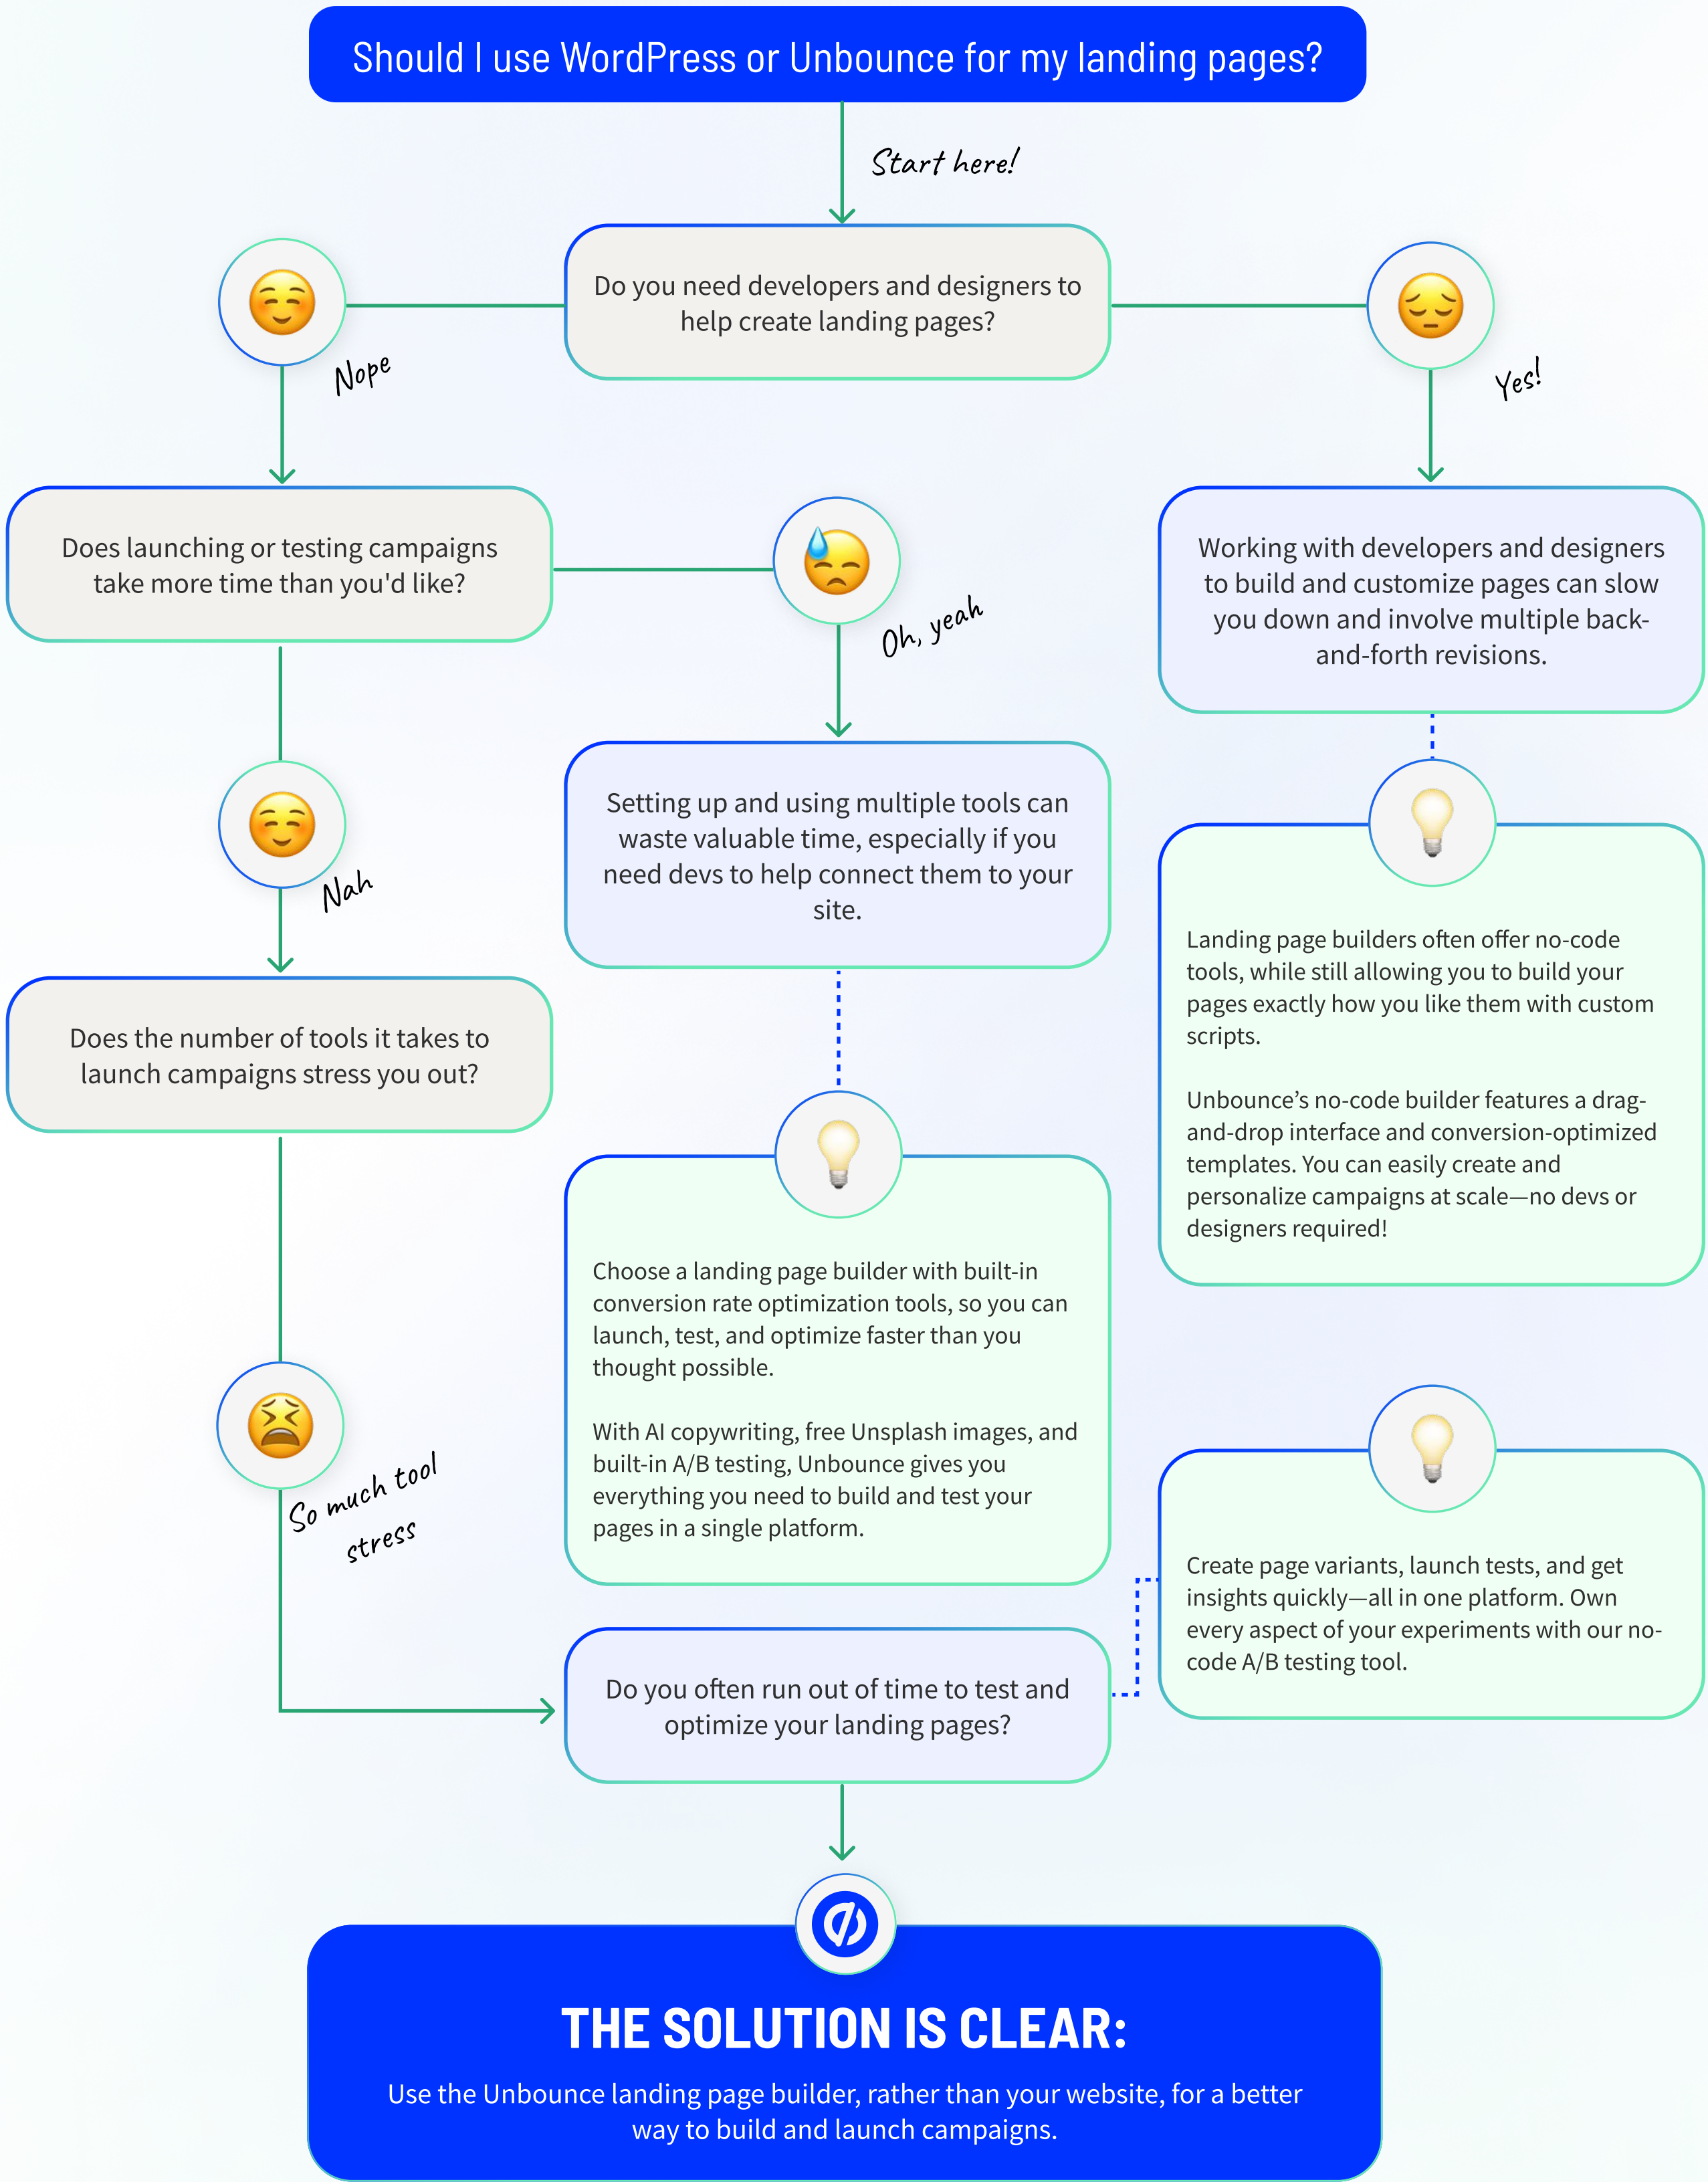

Find out if you’re set to scale—or fail

If you created your website on WordPress, then also using it to create landing pages might seem like the logical choice...but is it?

Competition is fierce, resources are tight, and you’re hustling to get campaigns out the door fast. But every tweak needs a developer—and the last thing you need is more bottlenecks.

Enter landing page builders. A good landing page builder allows you to launch, test, and optimize campaigns faster than any traditional website builder. This helps you get your campaigns to market quickly and keeps conversions rolling in.

NO TRADE-OFFS, JUST MORE CONTROL

We know what you’re wondering: “If I create landing pages with a separate builder, what will I be giving up?” What you’ll be giving up is a lot of frustration! In return, you’ll be gaining these benefits:

Customization

Unbounce allows you to customize your pages with pixel-perfect detail, thanks to custom scripts.

Using your domain

It's easy to connect your landing pages to your WordPress domain.

Managing pages in WordPress

With the Unbounce WordPress plugin you can easily manage landing pages within WordPress.

REAL RESULTS FROM REAL MARKETERS

★★★★★

"I love how easy Unbounce makes it to build landing pages! I sometimes struggle with building website pages on our WordPress but Unbounce makes it a thousand times easier."

— Jesse F. Digital Marketing Manager

★★★★★

"Unbounce made it so easy to keep track of our landing pages (we previously used WordPress). The mobile responsiveness was a huge benefit to us and they make it super easy to do."

— Erin M.
